

Stained Glass Window in North Wall

This window survived the rebuilding despite St Clement, our Patron saint, who was a Bishop and wrote an epistle mentioned by St Paul Philippians in 100AD IV verse 3. He was martyred by being flung in the sea tied to an anchor, seen clearly in the window. It also shows St Hugh famous Bishop of Lincoln 1186-1200 AD responsible for much of the building of the glorious Lincoln Cathedral. He was also a national figure, he kept a pet swan (shown in the window) which was devoted to him.
